office of Congressman William T. Cahill who, for some reason, had originally called Mr. Helms' office. The case concerned was one

25X1 []
25X1 Mrs. Pickett indicated there appeared to be some problem of security clearance after [] had worked for us. I said I would look into this and advise.

25X1 7. [] William Seward, in the office of Senator Barry Goldwater, called regarding the Agency's comments on S. 920, Goldwater's bill which would permit alien amateur radio operators to operate in the U.S. when reciprocity is extended by their home countries.
Seward said the Bureau of the Budget had advised him that the Agency had not submitted a report on this bill as yet. After talking with the Bureau (Mr. Stanley Fyke), I advised Seward that our report had gone to the Bureau on 5 August and that BOB regretted misinforming him.
